Request Guidelines

1. All permissions must be sought in writing.
2. The following information must be provided about the Federation Press title from which you are seeking to use material:
  - book title
  - author
  - page number(s) that will be cited.
3. The following information must be provided about your publication:
  - full details about the website/ book/ journal where the Federation Press abstract or extract will be reproduced
  - the name of your organisation
  - the audience for your material (eg students).
4. If you are requesting permission to reproduce Federation Press material on a website we need to know who will have access to it, ie does it appear on the worldwide web, is it an intranet site, is it password protected?
5. Each permission request is assessed on a case-by-case basis. Permissions requests will usually be granted on the condition that the publisher and source is cited and acknowledged. A permissions fee may also be charged and other restrictions, such as an embargo period, may also apply.
