

24 June 1843

Re Richard Guinness Hill, John Beswicke and Joseph Betts. Application for habeas corpus in relation to three men accused of the murder of an aboriginal woman at Muston's Creek. Proceedings adjourned when Willis received notice of his removal from office.