Tom Hughes, dropping Tony a line

Q: Do you agree with your father-in-law that appointing Abbott as leader in 2009 was a potentially catastrophic decision and like having the principal lunatic in charge of the asylum?

(Inevitable this question would be put. I referenced this story about Tom Hughes earlier today.)

Malcolm Turnbull:

I won't comment on that other than to say that my father-in-law is a very distinguished lawyer. He is a great man - 93 years of age this year. He served in the Royal Australian Air Force in the Second World War. He served his country in parliament and at war and his memoir will be of great interest and inspiration to many people who read his life story.

Tom has great respect for Tony Abbott and the note that is referred to in his memoirs, of course, is some years old and I know that Tom has written a note to Tony to apologise if any offence is caused by that.

The prime minister is asked whether we will have to wait 20 years to see growth flow from the corporate tax cuts. Turnbull would like to mention that Bill Shorten in 2011 supported a company tax cut.

Q: Will we have to wait 20 years to see 1% growth out of that?
