
THE FEDERATION PRESS
ACADEMIC CATALOGUE

SEMESTER 2
TRIMESTER 3

2023

CONTENTS

Upcoming new editions	1	Equity & trusts	13
Upcoming new editions	2	Litigation	13
New editions	3	Introduction to law	14
Constitutional law	4	Administrative law	15
Tort law	5	Intellectual property	15
Statutory interpretation	6	International law	16
Criminal law	7	Rural law	16
Contract law	9	Environmental & planning law	17
Employment law	10	Other titles of interest	18
Social welfare & human rights	11	The Holt Prize	19
Health law	12

ACADEMIC DISCOUNT

As an academic you're entitled to buy non-textbook titles, which are not available for inspection, at a discount of 25% off the RRP. Please enter the promotional code EP1739 when ordering online. If you have any questions, contact us at: academic@federationpress.com.au

eBooks eBooks eBooks

All of our new titles and new editions are released in eBook format via ProQuest and VitalSource. Many of our backlist titles are also published as eBooks.

Information for your library

The eBooks that are for sale from ProQuest are available as a:

1. Perpetual single user licence, or
2. Perpetual 3-user licence

The eBooks that are for sale from VitalSource are available as annual subscriptions either via a single user or 3-user licence.

Institutional licences for eBook can't be purchased directly from The Federation Press.

If your library doesn't have a relationship with ProQuest, or would like to find out more, please contact Mike LoGreco. For VitalSource, please contact Melitta St Just.

If there are Federation Press titles that you would like in your library and that are not presently available as eBooks, please email info@federationpress.com.au

Your students

If you have students who prefer a digital format, they can purchase our eBooks from VitalSource. The RRP for eBooks for individual use is the same as the RRP for the print format.

federationpress.com.au

info@federationpress.com.au

02 9552 2200

@TheFedPress

The Federation Press

UPCOMING NEW EDITIONS

BLACKSHIELD AND WILLIAMS AUSTRALIAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND THEORY: Commentary and Materials, 8th ed

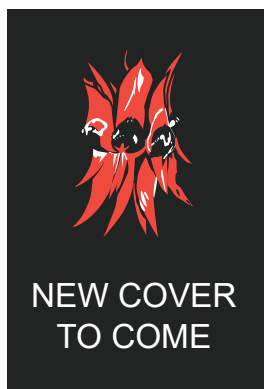

Rebecca Ananian-Welsh
Sean Brennan
Andrew Lynch
Peta Stephenson
George Williams

January 2024
PB 9781760024819
eBook 9781760024826
RRP $180

Learn more >

An expanded author team brings fresh perspectives to the new edition of Blackshield and Williams Australian Constitutional Law and Theory. The 8th edition includes:

- new material on the Voice to Parliament and the outcome of the 2023 referendum;
- an up-to-date list of major High Court cases in areas including the executive, separation of judicial power, inconsistency, aliens power and implied freedom of political communication;
- improved coverage in the areas of executive power and the judiciary;
- a new executive summary at the start of each chapter; and
- a two-colour design making it easier for students to engage with the text.

CREIGHTON & STEWART'S LABOUR LAW, 7th ed

Andrew Stewart
Anthony Forsyth
Mark Irving
Richard Johnstone
Shae McCrystal

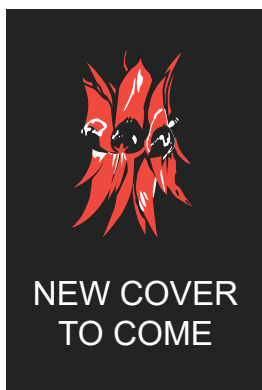

January 2024
PB 9781760023911
eBook 9781760023928
RRP $195

Learn more >

The new edition of this classic text Creighton & Stewart's Labour Law has been thoroughly revised and updated to incorporate the substantial reform enacted during the first 18 months of the Albanese government. It also explores potential changes to come. The 7th edition includes:

- new decisions by the courts and tribunals, on matters such as the distinction between employees and independent contractors, enterprise bargaining, and much more besides;
- pointers to further reading, with a substantial bibliography and index connecting readers to the voluminous academic literature on the subject;
- the most comprehensive and authoritative account of the subject for students and scholars alike.

UPCOMING NEW EDITIONS

LAW IN CONTEXT, 5th ed

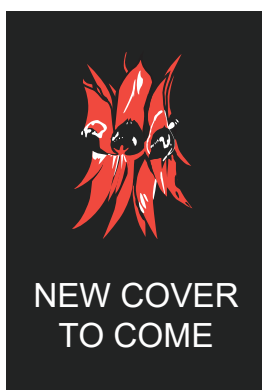

Simon Bronitt and
Stephen Bottomley

November 2023
PB 9781760024314
eBook 9781760024321
RRP $120

Learn more >

This foundational student text provides readers with a contextual understanding of the law and the legal system, from the history and evolution of legal concepts to the institutional limitations of law and justice. Fully revised and restructured, the 5th edition includes:

- a new chapter on First Nations Peoples, Law and Injustice which covers the Uluru Statement of the Heart, the Voice to Parliament and legal pluralism;
- an updated chapter on Gender Equality with new material on intersectionality and transgenderism;
- new discussion questions at the end of each chapter; and
- key case studies which illustrate the law in practice.

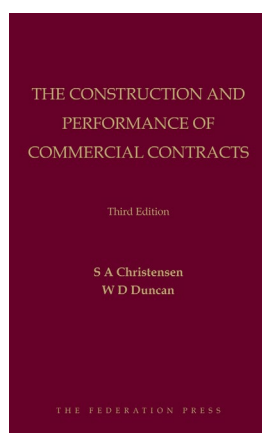

CONTEMPT

David Rolph

September 2023
HB 9781760024659
eBook 9781760024666
Academic price $198.75
RRP $265

 Inspection copy not available*

This book is the first comprehensive treatment of the Australian law of contempt of court. It provides a rigorous but accessible exposition of the fundamental principles of this somewhat arcane area of law. The book considers all forms of contempt, including civil contempt, sub judice contempt, contempt in the face of the court, scandalising the court and interference with the administration of justice as an ongoing process. It examines the difficult issue of the distinction between civil and criminal contempt. The book also analyses the procedure and penalties for contempt of court.

THE CONSTRUCTION AND PERFORMANCE OF COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS, 3rd ed

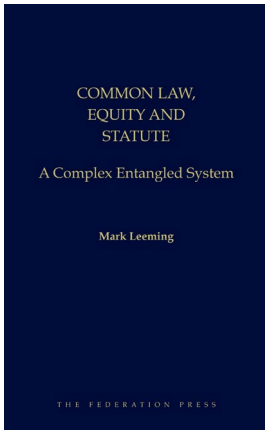

S A Christensen
and W D Duncan

July 2023
c.736pp
HB 9781760024550
eBook
RRP $195

 Inspection copy not available*

This work analyses a number of commonly found boilerplate clauses in commercial contracts and illustrates, through case law, how they have been judicially interpreted. Each chapter concludes with recommendations as to the issues that should be considered when drafting such clauses. The emphasis of the book is on the application of the principles of contract directly to the construction of contracts and is not merely a recitation of those principles. Several recent appellate court decisions (including those of the HCA, NSWCA and VCA) have been added to illustrate points of construction.

NEW EDITIONS

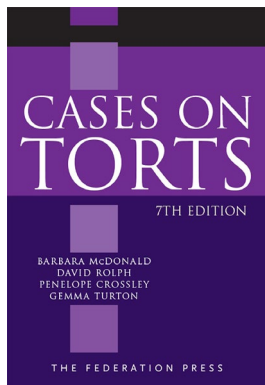

COMMON LAW, EQUITY AND STATUTE: A Complex Entangled System

Mark Leeming

June 2023
352pp
HB 9781760024574
eBook 9781760024581
Academic price $135
RRP $180

* Inspection copy not available

This strikingly original book analyses what is meant by the 'common law of Australia', what is the relationship between judge-made law and statutes, and how courts resolve novel questions of law. It explains why some questions are best regarded as aspects of the common law, why others are best regarded as questions of statutory construction, why some are difficult to characterise, and why this matters. An invaluable resource for anyone seeking a sophisticated understanding of how the law is applied and developed by our courts.

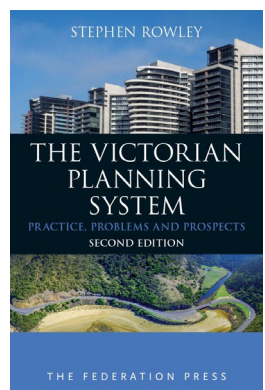

CASES ON TORTS, 7th ed

Barbara McDonald, David Rolph, Penelope Crossley and Gemma Turton

May 2023
661pp
PB 9781760024512
eBook 9781760024529
RRP $130

The new edition of this established casebook is a valuable resource of the principles of contemporary tort law in its historical context. Each case extract comes with a note setting out the essential principle for which the case is authority and/or asking the student to consider a key issue which the case addresses or leaves undecided.

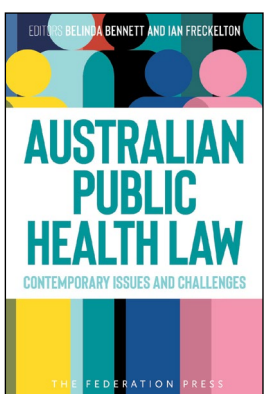

THE VICTORIAN PLANNING SYSTEM: Practice, Problems and Prospects, 2nd ed

Stephen Rowley

May 2023
395pp
PB 9781760024338
eBook 9781760024345
RRP $99

Now in its 2nd edition, this accessible text seeks to demystify the Victorian planning system. The structure and design of planning schemes are explained, along with a discussion of how planning decisions are made. Updates include changes made by the finalised Plan Melbourne 2017-2050, 'Smart Planning' program, integrated Planning Policy Framework, Better Apartments Design Standards, and new Environment Protection Act, among others.

AUSTRALIAN PUBLIC HEALTH LAW: Contemporary Issues and Challenges

Belinda Bennett and Ian Freckelton (eds)

March 2023
704pp
PB 9781760024178
eBook 9781760024185
RRP $160

This book explores the changing scope of public health law. In 26 chapters, written by leading academics, this innovative collection analyses the role of law in supporting health and safety for the community. It explores the intersections between public health law and human rights, analysing issues in genomics, access to medicines, mental health law and Indigenous health equity. Other topics addressed include: food, alcohol, tobacco and drug regulation; environmental law; communicable diseases; and workplace health and safety law.

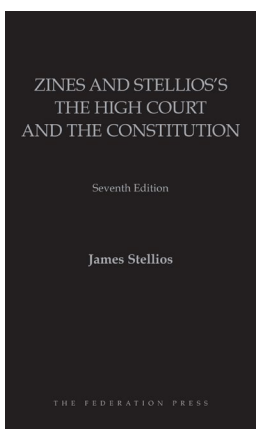

BLACKSHIELD AND WILLIAMS AUSTRALIAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND THEORY: Commentary and Materials, 8th ed

Rebecca Ananian-Welsh, Sean Brennan, Andrew Lynch, Peta Stephenson and George Williams

January 2024
PB 9781760024819
eBook 9781760024826
RRP $180

An expanded author team brings fresh perspectives to the new edition of Blackshield and Williams Australian Constitutional Law and Theory. It includes new material on the Voice and the outcome of the 2023 referendum; the latest High Court decisions, and improved coverage in the areas of executive power and the judiciary. A new two-colour design, which includes an executive summary at the start of each chapter, makes this essential text easier for students to engage with.

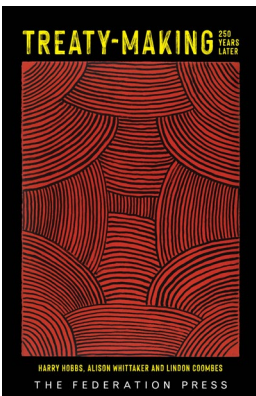

ZINES AND STELLIOS'S THE HIGH COURT AND THE CONSTITUTION, 7th ed

James Stellios

August 2022
864pp
HB 9781760023706
eBook 9781760023713
Academic price $146.25
RRP $195

The 7th edition contains analysis and critique of the High Court's jurisprudence which in recent years has included a range of important decisions transforming, extending and developing existing constitutional law principles. The book includes coverage of new developments on the implied freedom of political communication and the High Court's continuing development of Chapter III principles.

 Inspection copy not available*

TREATY-MAKING: 250 Years Later

Harry Hobbs, Alison Whittaker and Lindon Coombes (eds)

June 2021
274pp
PB 9781760023041
eBook 9781760023058
RRP $59.95

In this important collection, Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars and policy-makers from Australia and New Zealand engage with the legal, historical and political dimensions of treaty-making in Australia. These considered contributions provide a roadmap for how to develop a legal artifice and treaty relationship that delivers justice.

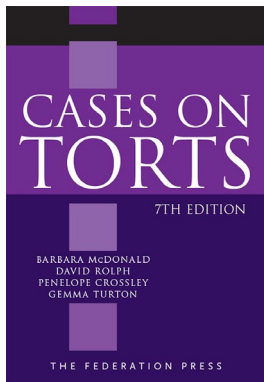

TREATY, 2nd ed

George Williams and Harry Hobbs

June 2020
384pp
PB 9781760022396
eBook 9781760023720
RRP $59.95

This leading book on the treaty debate in Australia takes a fresh look at modern treaty-making between Indigenous peoples and governments. It takes account of key events such as the emergence of State and Territory driven treaty processes, the negotiation and finalisation of the Noongar Settlement, and the delivery of the Uluru Statement from the Heart.

CASES ON TORTS, 7th ed

Barbara McDonald, David Rolph, Penelope Crossley and Gemma Turton

May 2023

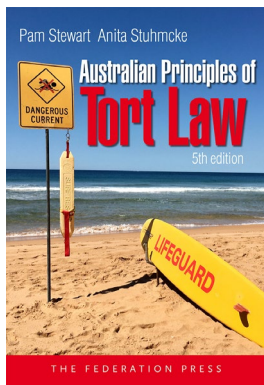

661pp

PB 9781760024512

eBook 9781760024529

RRP $130

This established casebook is a valuable resource of the principles of contemporary tort law in its historical context. Each case extract comes with a note setting out the essential principle for which the case is authority and/or asking the student to consider a key issue which the case addresses or leaves undecided.

AUSTRALIAN PRINCIPLES OF TORT LAW, 5th ed

Pam Stewart and Anita Stuhmcke

February 2022

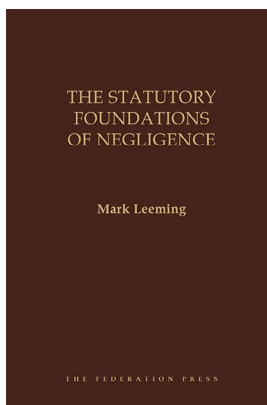

944pp

PB 9781760023355

eBook 9781760023362

RRP $125

Stewart and Stuhmcke bring clarity to a conceptually difficult area of law across all Australian jurisdictions. This edition has been thoroughly reviewed and rewritten including: restructuring chapter content; extensive additional commentary on case law concerning both the civil liability legislation and common law; increased emphasis on the growing body of law which interprets the statutory provisions and up-to-date lists of suggested further reading following each chapter.

THE STATUTORY FOUNDATIONS OF NEGLIGENCE

Mark Leeming

January 2019

224pp

HB 9781760021955

eBook 9781760023591

Academic price $108.75

RRP $145

This work explains how statutes underpin and inform the whole of the law of negligence. It shows how throughout the entirety of the law of negligence – including duty, breach, causation, contributory negligence, statutory contribution, proportionate liability and damages – statutes have been responsible for the law as it is now understood and practised.

 Inspection copy not available*

STATUTORY INTERPRETATION

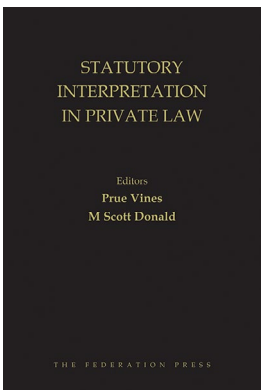

PUBLIC LAW AND STATUTORY INTERPRETATION: Principles and Practice, 2nd ed

Lisa Burton Crawford,
Janina Boughey, Melissa Castan and Maria O'Sullivan

May 2021
370pp
PB 9781760022860
eBook 9781760022976
RRP $120

This book provides an engaging and reader-friendly overview of Australian public law institutions and principles, together with the principles and process of statutory interpretation. It is the first text to draw these two topics together to clearly explain how the principles of statutory interpretation reflect the constitutional relationship between the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government.

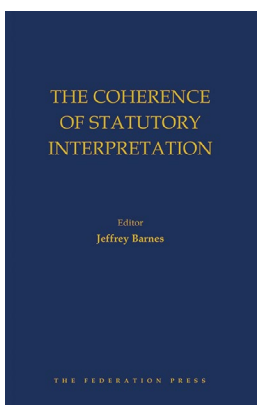

STATUTORY INTERPRETATION IN PRIVATE LAW

Prue Vines and
M Scott Donald (eds)

May 2019
288pp
HB 9781760022051
RRP $160

 Inspection copy not available*

Statutes are now prevalent in every area of private law. How are statutes to be interpreted in this area, and is it reasonable to think that statutory interpretation might have different emphases in private law compared with public law. Contributors include: The Hon Tom Bathurst AC, Justice Mark Leeming and Justice Ashley Black.

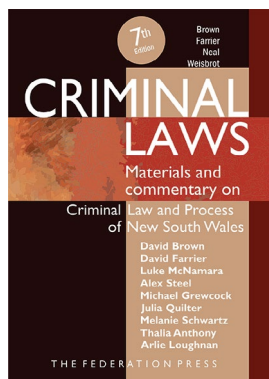

THE COHERENCE OF STATUTORY INTERPRETATION

Jeffrey Barnes (ed)

July 2019
272pp
HB 9781760022099
Academic price $120
RRP $160

 Inspection copy not available*

This book critically examines the coherence of the principles and practice of statutory interpretation. The main questions it addresses are: is the law coherent and if in certain respects it is not coherent, how and why has this come about. With contributions from judges and academics including Sir Anthony Mason, Justice Chris Maxwell, Justice Nye Perram and Matthew Groves, this is a thought-provoking collection.

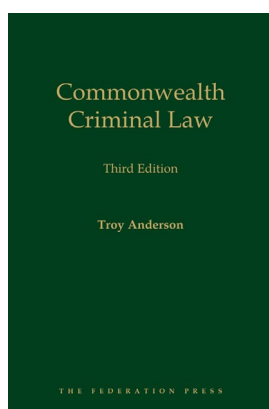

CRIMINAL LAWS: Materials and Commentary on Criminal Law and Process of New South Wales, 7th ed

David Brown, David Farrier, Luke McNamara, Alex Steel, Michael Grewcock, Julia Quilter, Melanie Schwartz, Thalia Anthony and Arlie Loughnan

The combination of primary sources with critical commentary and a contextual perspective makes this the ideal teaching text for criminal law and criminal justice courses. The 7th edition incorporates the latest research on the impact of criminal laws and the associated practices of police, prosecutors, courts and prisons.

January 2020
1504pp
PB 9781760021795
eBook 9781760022624
RRP $165

COMMONWEALTH CRIMINAL LAW, 3rd ed

Troy Anderson

Commonwealth criminal law represents an expanding area of practice and this text is a practical entry point for students wanting to practice criminal law. It provides an overview of how Commonwealth criminal law intersects with State and Territory criminal law and has undergone significant updating, including with respect to the Commonwealth's new money laundering and child exploitation offences.

August 2022
448pp
HB 9781760023966
eBook 9781760023973
RRP $150

THE TRIAL: Principles, Process and Evidence, 2nd ed

Jill Hunter, James Metzger, Terese Henning, Gary Edmond, Rebecca McMahon, Mehera San Roque and Helen Cockburn

Criminal jury trials occur in an increasingly complex justice environment. The Trial distils and explains the criminal trial's complexities in terms of the daily pre-trial and trial challenges facing courts and practitioners. It draws links to the potential impact of lawyers' advocacy on courts' decision-making and the important context of juries, and explicitly recognises that courts' processes and decisions require not only an appreciation of the uniform Evidence Acts, but also an understanding of human emotion and psychology.

May 2021
720pp
PB 9781760022938
eBook 9781760022983
RRP $135

CRIMINAL LAWS NORTHERN TERRITORY, 3rd ed

Stephen Gray, Jenny Blokland, Ben Grimes and Julian Murphy

The 3rd edition of this unique book includes a new chapter on language and the law and details about the Royal Commission into the Protection and Detention of Children. The book covers procedure, all the major offences, public order offences and sentencing in the Northern Territory.

February 2021
512pp
PB 9781760022587
eBook 9781760022945
RRP $95

VICTORIAN CRIMINAL PROCEDURE: State and Federal Law 2019

Richard Fox and Nadia Deltondo

February 2019
640pp
PB 9781760021870
eBook 9781760022808
RRP $110

This book offers a comprehensive overview of the law governing the procedures for prosecuting offenders against Commonwealth and state law in Victoria. It covers areas such as: the machinery of federal and state prosecutions, representation and legal aid, contempt, arrest, search and seizure, charges, bail, procedure in summary prosecutions, jury trials, and appeals in criminal matters.

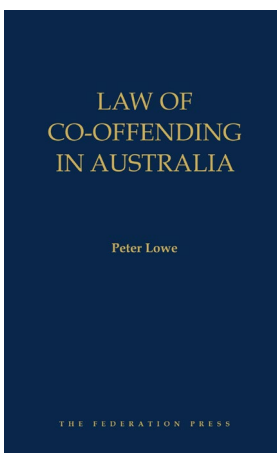

UNIFORM EVIDENCE LAW: Text and Essential Cases, 4th ed

John Anderson

February 2021
890pp
PB 9781760022570
eBook 9781760022839
RRP $125

This book covers all the concepts and rules of evidence law. Carefully selected case extracts, judicial decisions and legislative amendments are accompanied by insightful commentary and analysis. This edition includes updates on the contentious area of tendency evidence, with principles in this area clarified significantly by several high-profile High Court decisions.

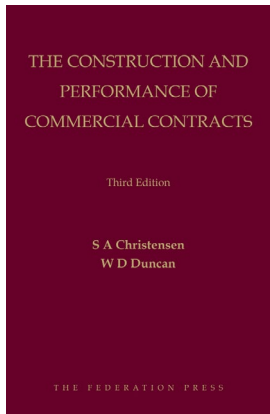

LAW OF CO-OFFENDING IN AUSTRALIA: Principles Applicable to Co-accused Trials

Peter Lowe

November 2022
288pp
HB 9781760024192
eBook 9781760024208
RRP $150

The focus of this book is how each of the Australian jurisdictions deal with issues affecting co-accused both under common law and under statute. It covers the practice, procedure and legal aspects of joint trials and how such trials differ in important respects from the trial of a sole accused.

THE CONSTRUCTION AND PERFORMANCE OF COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS, 3rd ed

S A Christensen and W D Duncan

July 2023
736pp
HB 9781760024550
eBook 9781760024567

Academic price $146.25
RRP $195

 Inspection copy not Available*

The third edition of this work analyses commonly found boilerplate clauses in commercial contracts and illustrates, through case law, how they have been judicially interpreted. Each chapter concludes with recommendations as to the issues that should be considered when drafting such clauses. The emphasis of the book is upon the application of the principles of contract directly to the construction of contracts and is not merely a recitation of those principles. Several recent appellate court decisions (including those of the HCA, NSWCA and VCA) have been added to this edition to illustrate points of construction.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS: Federal, State and Local, 7th ed

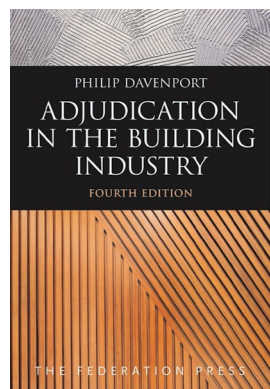

Nicholas Seddon

May 2023
603pp
HB 9781760024444
eBook 9781760024451

Academic price $146.25
RRP $195

 Inspection copy not available*

When government entities make contracts, the ordinary law of contract is only a part of the law that is engaged. This thoroughly revised and updated new edition analyses the complex and developing mixture of private and public law that informs government contracting. The mixture raises some difficult problems and is, at times, controversial. While the focus is on the legal aspects of governments choosing to use contracts, it does, however, engage with the principal practical issues that need to be considered by government personnel.

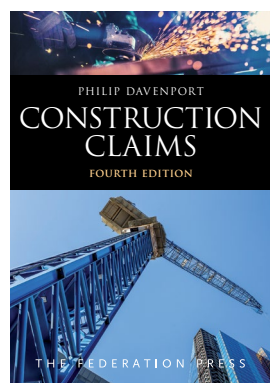

ADJUDICATION IN THE BUILDING INDUSTRY, 4th ed

Philip Davenport

September 2021
286pp
PB 9781760023218
eBook 9781760023300
RRP $99

An essential text for students of building and construction management, engineering and architecture. Detailed and up-to-date coverage explains radical changes to the industry, including new laws addressing the problem of prompt payment and the outcome of recent High Court decisions.

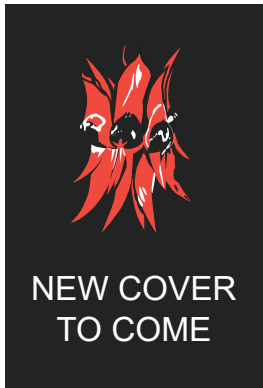

CONSTRUCTION CLAIMS, 4th ed

Philip Davenport

November 2020
320pp
PB 9781760022525
eBook 9781760023294
RRP $99

The 4th edition has been thoroughly updated to take account of the significant changes that have occurred in the law governing construction claims. The book makes cogent arguments for abolition of the prevention principle and the entire contract rule and the adoption of deemed trusts.

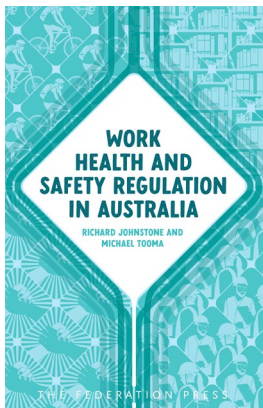

CREIGHTON & STEWART'S LABOUR LAW, 7th ed

Andrew Stewart, Anthony Forsyth, Mark Irving, Richard Johnstone and Shae McCrystal

January 2024
PB 9781760023911
eBook 9781760023928
RRP $195

The new edition of this classic text has been thoroughly revised and updated to incorporate the substantial reform enacted during the first 18 months of the Albanese government. It also explores potential change to come. The new edition also makes extensive reference to important new decisions by the courts and tribunals. It includes a substantial bibliography and index connecting readers to the voluminous academic literature on the subject. Creighton & Stewart's Labour Law continues to offer the most comprehensive and authoritative account of the subject for students and scholars alike.

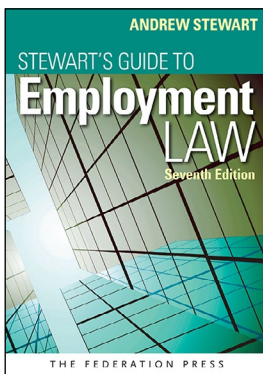

WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY REGULATION IN AUSTRALIA

Richard Johnstone and Michael Tooma

August 2022
448pp
PB 9781760024024
eBook 9781760024031
RRP $145

Over the past decade work health and safety law in Australia has undergone major reform, with all but one of the Australian jurisdictions adopting the Model Work Health and Safety Act 2010. This book provides a historical and policy context to the law, outlines practical issues, elucidates its practical operation, critically analyses its provisions, and makes proposals for the future development of the legislation.

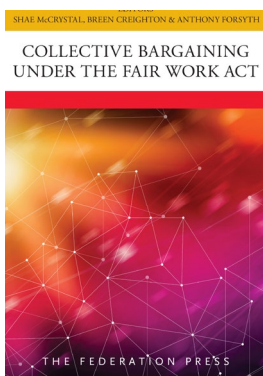

STEWART'S GUIDE TO EMPLOYMENT LAW, 7th ed

Andrew Stewart

August 2021
576pp
PB 9781760023157
eBook 9781760023164
RRP $99

An accessible and indispensable text for students of labour law. The 7th edition explains amendments to the Fair Work Act, changes to modern awards following the Fair Work Commission review and new case law. Other topical updates include pandemic leave, vaccination requirements, working from home, standing down employees and freedom of expression on social media.

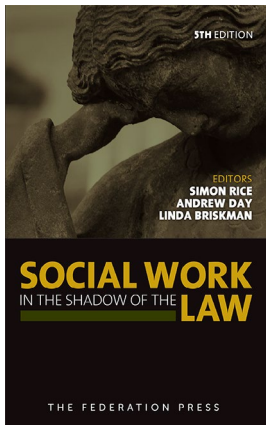

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING UNDER THE FAIR WORK ACT

Shae McCrystal, Breen Creighton and Anthony Forsyth (eds)

August 2018
352pp
PB 9781760021849
eBook 9781760023584
RRP $69.95

Is the system of collective bargaining under the Fair Work Act broken? Both employers and unions think that it is, and that the law requires significant amendment. This collection addresses this question by examining the operation, effects and impact of the framework for enterprise bargaining established by the Fair Work Act.

SOCIAL WELFARE & HUMAN RIGHTS

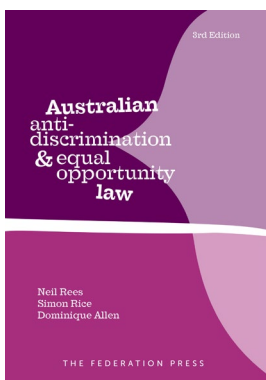

SOCIAL WORK IN THE SHADOW OF THE LAW, 5th ed

Simon Rice, Andrew Day and Linda Briskman (eds)

June 2018
576pp
PB 9781760021610
eBook 9781760022730
RRP $95

An essential resource for social work students. This book will equip students with knowledge that will enable them to work effectively with their clients, lawyers and the legal system. Includes chapters on child sexual abuse; domestic violence; elder abuse; Indigenous Australians; LGBTIQ+ people; the NDIS; and refugees and asylum seekers.

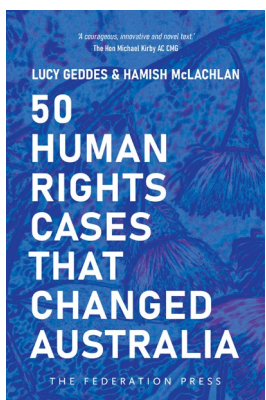

AUSTRALIAN ANTI-DISCRIMINATION & EQUAL OPPORTUNITY LAW, 3rd ed

Neil Rees, Simon Rice and Dominique Allen

February 2018
1080pp
PB 9781760021559
eBook 9781760022723
RRP $130

A substantial text on anti-discrimination law which identifies the differences between State, Territory and Commonwealth provisions, topic by topic, and includes a powerful critique of the law in Australia. The authors support their analysis and explanation of legislation and case law with extracts from a broad range of decisions, law reform reports, and academic writers and commentators.

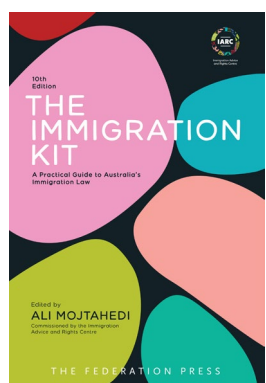

50 HUMAN RIGHTS CASES THAT CHANGED AUSTRALIA

Lucy Geddes and Hamish McLachlan

February 2023
374pp
PB 9781760024277
eBook 9781760024284
RRP $69.95

A fantastic text for law and justice students, this book provides case summaries of 50 of Australia's most significant human rights cases, ranging from the seminal land rights case of Mabo to lesser-known earlier cases on civil liberties and more recent advances in LGBTIQ+ rights, environmental rights, and the rights of people with disabilities.

THE IMMIGRATION KIT: A Practical Guide to Australia's Immigration Law, 10th ed

Ali Mojtahedi (ed)

April 2022
864pp
PB 9781760023324
RRP $145

The most up-to-date, plain language guide to Australia's immigration, refugee and citizenship law. Commissioned by the Immigration Advice and Rights Centre (IARC) and written by experienced migration lawyers, it provides information on bridging visas; family visas; skilled migration; refugee and humanitarian visas; students; temporary workers; and Australian citizenship.

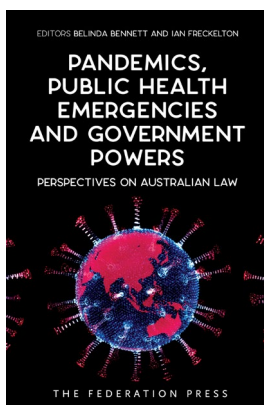

AUSTRALIAN PUBLIC HEALTH LAW: Contemporary Issues and Challenges

Belinda Bennett and
Ian Freckelton (eds)

March 2023
704pp
PB 9781760024178
eBook 9781760024185
RRP $160

Public health law plays a key role in protecting the health of the community. This contributed collection brings together leading academics to analyse the growing body of work on the legal dimensions of public health. It addresses contemporary issues such as those created by the COVID-19 pandemic and bushfires, but also legal aspects of diseases such as obesity and drug use.

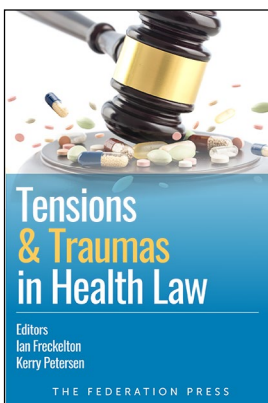

PANDEMICS, PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCIES AND GOVERNMENT POWERS: Perspectives on Australian law

Belinda Bennett and
Ian Freckelton (eds)

August 2021
488pp
PB 9781760022969
eBook 9781760023256
Academic price $112.50
RRP $150

Leading Australian legal scholars analyse the legal dimensions of the pandemic and the role of law in responding to its impact. As a health crisis the COVID-19 pandemic has obviously had a huge impact on the health system. However, social distancing and other public health measures have also brought major changes at a social and economic level.

 Inspection copy not available*

TENSIONS & TRAUMAS IN HEALTH LAW

Ian Freckelton and Kerry
Petersen (eds)

November 2017
832pp
PB 9781760021498
eBook 9781760024055
RRP $145

This comprehensive health law text focuses on controversial and cutting-edge problems in health law. Among the issues it considers are those raised by: new technologies; changing legislation; new regulatory processes for medicine and the health professions; changes to civil liability for medical negligence; changes to the legality of assisted dying/euthanasia law; and biobanking and embryo research.

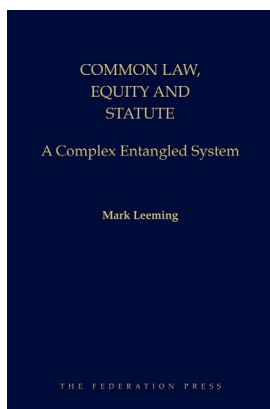

ETHICS AND LAW FOR THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS, 4th ed

Ian Kerridge, Michael Lowe and Cameron Stewart

March 2013
1232pp
PB 9781862879096
eBook 9781760022747
RRP $99

This cross-disciplinary medico-legal book covers developments in law, biomedical science, healthcare delivery and bioethics. It includes sections on critical reasoning, problem solving, professionalism, negligence, standards of care, public health and the emerging biosciences. It recognises that health professionals must understand both the ethical and legal implications of their practice but is careful to distinguish between the two.

EQUITY & TRUSTS

COMMON LAW, EQUITY AND STATUTE: A Complex Entangled System

Mark Leeming

June 2023

352pp

HB 9781760024574

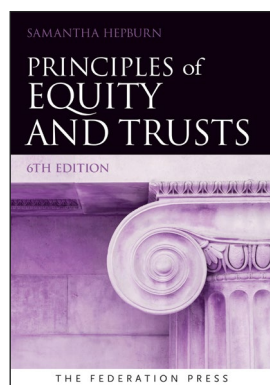

eBook 9781760024581

Academic price $135

RRP $180

 Inspection copy not available*

This strikingly original book analyses what is meant by the 'common law of Australia', what is the relationship between judge-made law and statutes, and how courts resolve novel questions of law. It explains why some questions are best regarded as aspects of the common law, why others are best regarded as questions of statutory construction, why some are difficult to characterise, and why this matters. An invaluable resource for anyone seeking a sophisticated understanding of how the law is applied and developed by our courts.

PRINCIPLES OF EQUITY AND TRUSTS, 6th ed

Samantha Hepburn

October 2020

880pp

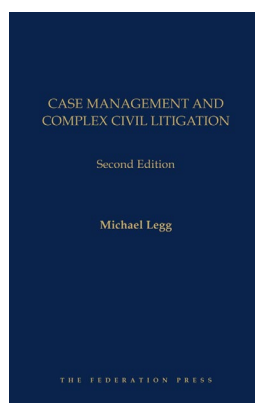

PB 9781760022495

eBook 9781760022792

RRP $125

A succinct text which presents principles and remedies relevant to equity and trusts with references to up-to-date cases and materials. It includes a discussion of new developments in fiduciary obligations, express trusts, unconscionable dealing, constructive trusts, penalties, injunctions, trustee duties and charitable trusts.

LITIGATION

CASE MANAGEMENT AND COMPLEX CIVIL LITIGATION, 2nd ed

Michael Legg

September 2022

448pp

HB 9781760024000

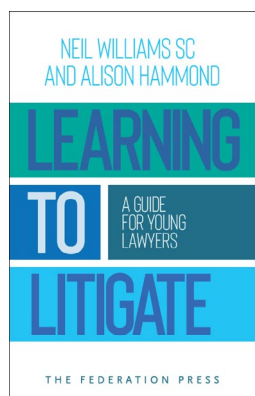

eBook 9781760024017

Academic price $146.25

RRP $195

 Inspection copy not available*

This highly practical text has been greatly expanded since its first edition. It provides detailed consideration of the history and rationale for case management principles and rules, and the most current and significant judicial pronouncements on them. It also examines the case management tools available to judges for dealing with crucial aspects of complex civil litigation, such as pleadings, discovery, expert evidence and alternative dispute resolution.

LEARNING TO LITIGATE: A Guide for Young Lawyers

Neil Williams SC and Alison Hammond

October 2022

338pp

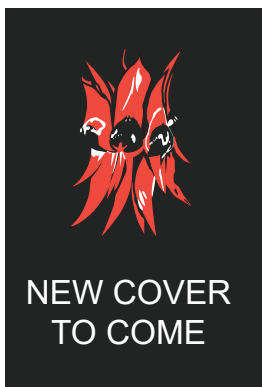

PB 9781760024079

eBook 9781760024086

RRP $89.95

The central tenet of this book is that great advocates are not born – they are made. Whether it be a plea of guilty before a magistrate or a multi-party commercial dispute involving billions of dollars and dozens of lawyers, each stage in the preparation and presentation of a case requires skills that must be learned, then honed. Combining the perspectives of an experienced silk and a relatively junior barrister, this is an essential book for young lawyers.

INTRODUCTION TO LAW

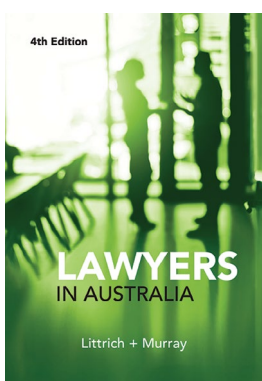

LAW IN CONTEXT, 5th Edition

Simon Bronitt and Stephen Bottomley

November 2023
PB 9781760024314
eBook 9781760024321
RRP $120

This foundational student text provides readers with a contextual understanding of the law and the legal system, from the history and evolution of legal concepts to the institutional limitations of law and justice. Fully revised and restructured, the 5th edition includes:

- a new chapter on First Nations Peoples, Law and Injustice;
- an updated chapter on Gender Equality;
- new discussion questions at the end of each chapter; and
- key case studies which illustrate the law in practice.

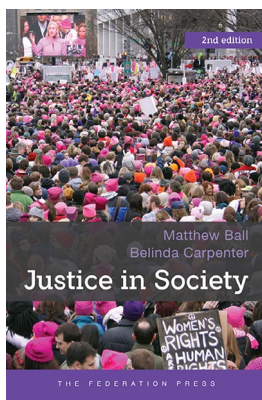

LAWYERS IN AUSTRALIA, 4th ed

John Littrich and Karina Murray

July 2019
496pp
PB 9781760022129
eBook 9781760022655
RRP $99

The 5th edition of this book is scheduled to publish in mid-2024. This popular text for legal ethics courses examines the legal profession and its ethical framework. It contextualises the role, responsibilities and ethics of lawyers in Australian society.

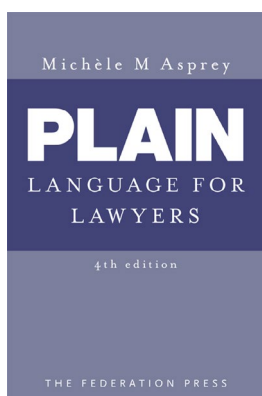

JUSTICE IN SOCIETY, 2nd ed

Matthew Ball and Belinda Carpenter

February 2019
288pp
PB 9781760021979
eBook 9781760022815
RRP $69.95

By considering the common assumptions about justice and injustice that underpin discussions on contemporary issues ranging from asylum seekers to transphobic discrimination, this book seeks to engage, challenge, and offer new possibilities for achieving justice in society.

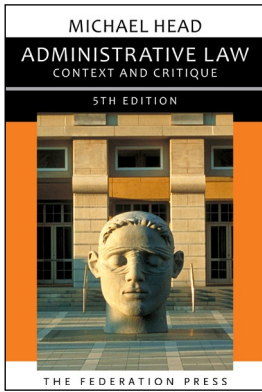

PLAIN LANGUAGE FOR LAWYERS, 4th ed

Michèle M Asprey

March 2010
352pp
PB 9781862877757
eBook 9781862877863
RRP $59.95

A comprehensive, entertaining and enormously useful text, internationally recognised as one of the best in the field. It contains practical advice, and can be read and enjoyed by anyone who is interested in plain language writing – not just lawyers. It introduces the concept of plain language and explains why it's needed, before covering in detail the fundamentals such as words, grammar and affectations to avoid.

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

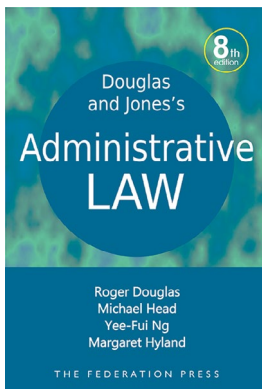

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW: Context and Critique, 5th ed

Michael Head

This edition critically examines administrative law in its contemporary and historical context. It has been fully updated to examine recent High Court and other superior court decisions, particularly those relating to unreasonableness, sub-delegation, bias, jurisdictional error and government liability for damages in tort, including for misfeasance in public office.

February 2021
384pp
PB 9781760023027
eBook 9781760022716
RRP $79.95

DOUGLAS AND JONES'S ADMINISTRATIVE LAW, 8th ed

Roger Douglas, Michael Head, Yee-Fui Ng and Margaret Hyland

A highly accessible text on administrative law. It includes every major High Court administrative law case and important extracts from High Court rulings.

May 2018
864pp
PB 9781760021733
eBook 9781760023171
RRP $155

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

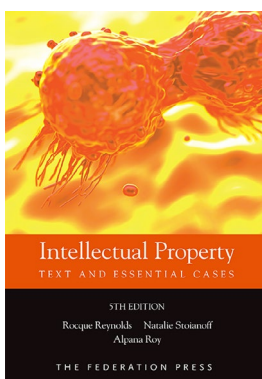

COPYRIGHT LAW

David Brennan

A comprehensive text for students of copyright law. It deals with all the private law regimes within the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) – proprietary copyright, technical protection measures, performers' rights and moral rights.

November 2021
576pp
HB 9781760023232
eBook 9781760023492
Academic price $165
RRP $220

* Inspection copy not available

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY: Text and Essential Cases, 5th ed

Rocque Reynolds, Natalie Stoianoff and Alpana Roy

This book provides a thorough legal analysis of modern intellectual property law. It covers copyright, patents, trade marks, designs, plant breeder's rights, circuit layouts and confidential information.

April 2015
832pp
PB 9781862879867
eBook 9781760022846
RRP $95

INTERNATIONAL LAW

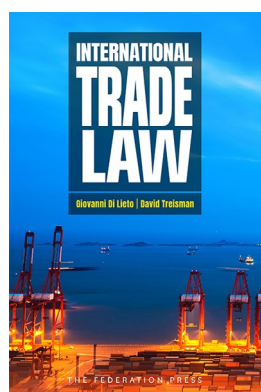

LAW OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS IN AUSTRALASIA, 2nd ed

Vivienne Bath and Gabriël Moens

October 2021
624pp
PB 9781760022136
eBook 9781760022761
RRP $120

This book deals with the core topics of international business transactions, including international sales contracts, international commercial terms, carriage of goods by sea, land and air, international investment and intellectual property, regulation of imports and exports, and international commercial dispute settlement, especially arbitration.

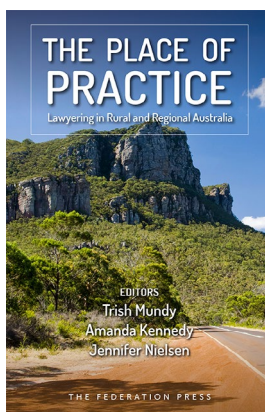

INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW

Giovanni Di Lieto and David Treisman

May 2018
288pp
PB 9781760021740
eBook 9781760022853
RRP $99

This book provides an understanding of the international legal framework in which trade between nations occurs. It details the aims and historical development of intergovernmental and private systems of cross-border trading rules and institutions. Each chapter includes an appendix with workshop activities, which help bridge the gap between theory and practice.

RURAL LAW

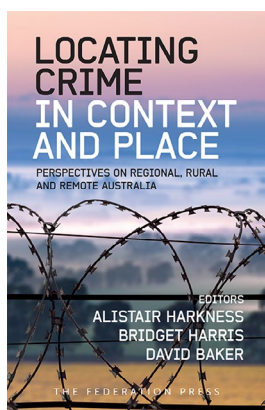

THE PLACE OF PRACTICE: Lawyering in Rural and Regional Australia

Trish Mundy, Amanda Kennedy and Jennifer Nielsen (eds)

October 2017
288pp
PB 9781760021573
eBook 9781760022181
RRP $89.95

This book looks at how legal practice differs in rural and regional areas, and the particular issues and barriers facing these communities and clients. Subjects covered include: the practical and ethical settings of rural and regional legal practice; access to justice; entrepreneurship and innovation; and distinct practitioner and client contexts (including working with Indigenous clients).

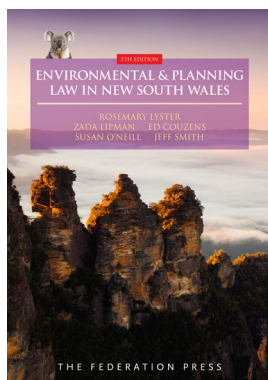

LOCATING CRIME IN CONTEXT AND PLACE: Perspectives on Regional, Rural and Remote Australia

Alistair Harkness, Bridget Harris and David Baker (eds)

December 2015
240pp
PB 9781760020477
eBook 9781760022914
RRP $69.99

The urban focus of crime has dominated the attention of criminologists. Although images of idyllic, crime-free areas beyond the cityscape persist, there is scant academic consideration of the realities and variances of crime across regional, rural and remote Australia. The broad theme of the book is centred on 'context, place and space'; however, contributors also assess contextualisations of rurality, notions of access to justice and the importance of building social capital.

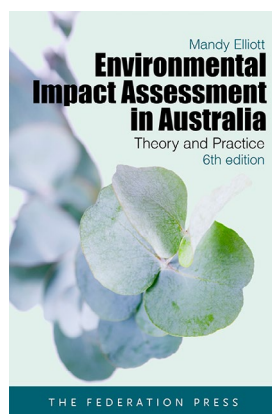

ENVIRONMENTAL & PLANNING LAW IN NEW SOUTH WALES, 5th ed

Rosemary Lyster, Zada Lipman,
Ed Couzens,
Susan O'Neill and Jeff Smith

March 2021
992pp
PB 9781760022594
eBook 9781760022709
RRP $125

Now in its 5th edition, this book continues to effectively integrate planning and assessment provisions with environmental law topics such as pollution control; the protection of biodiversity and heritage; natural resource issues such as energy and water; global and domestic attempts to deal with climate change; and corporate social responsibility.

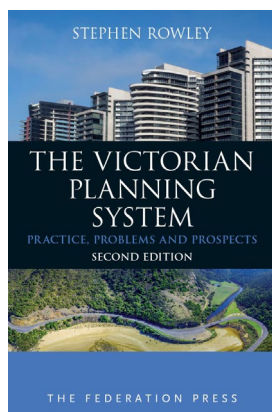

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT IN AUSTRALIA: Theory and Practice, 6th ed

Mandy Elliott

February 2014
368pp
PB 9781862879454
eBook 9781760022693
RRP $64.95

This text integrates planning and assessment provisions with environmental law topics such as pollution control; the protection of biodiversity and heritage; natural resource issues such as energy and water; global and domestic attempts to deal with climate change; and corporate social responsibility.

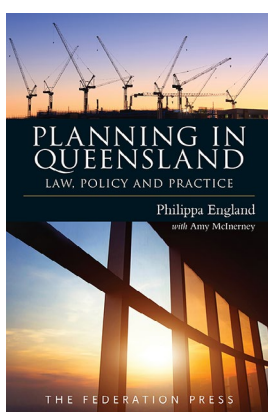

THE VICTORIAN PLANNING SYSTEM: Practice, Problems and Prospects, 2nd ed

Stephen Rowley

June 2023
315pp
PB 9781760024338
eBook 9781760024345
RRP $99

Rowley's book demystifies the planning system in accessible language. Updates to the 2nd edition include the finalised Plan Melbourne 2017–2050, the 'Smart Planning' program, the integrated Planning Policy Framework, revisions to residential development provisions and the Environment Protection Act. Other new areas of discussion include planning in growth areas, biodiversity offsetting for native vegetation removal and Aboriginal heritage.

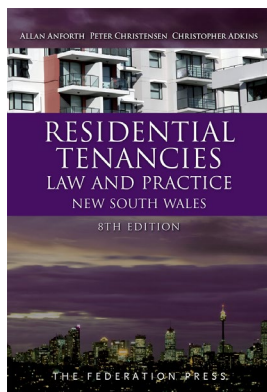

PLANNING IN QUEENSLAND: Law, Policy and Practice

Philippa England with Amy McInerney

June 2019
256pp
PB 9781760022068
eBook 9781760023997
RRP $89.95

This book provides a fresh look at the operation of planning law in Queensland. It explains the main features of Queensland's principal planning statute, now the Planning Act 2016, and brings the features of this technical statute to life with case studies drawn from planning documents and legal sources.

OTHER TITLES OF INTEREST

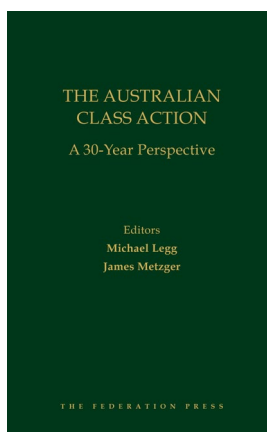

RESIDENTIAL TENANCIES LAW AND PRACTICE: New South Wales, 8th ed

Allan Anforth, Peter Christensen and Christopher Adkins

Written by experienced practitioners in the field, this volume is relevant to students interested in residential tenancy law in New South Wales. This 8th edition incorporates the Residential Tenancies Act 2010 (NSW) as amended to 1 February 2022, and surveys all the recent cases, updating annotations as necessary.

September 2022
656pp
PB 9781760023775
eBook 9781760023782
RRP $170

THE AUSTRALIAN CLASS ACTION: A 30-Year Perspective

Michael Legg and James Metzger (eds)

Class actions are one of the most controversial forms of litigation, being both loved and loathed. Class actions were introduced into Australia by Part IVA of the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976 (Cth) which commenced on 4 March 1992. This book uses the 30th anniversary as an opportunity to reflect on the major themes and controversies that have arisen during its operation.

December 2022
336pp
HB 9781760024253
eBook 9781760024260
Academic price $135
RRP $180

* Inspection copy not available

AUSTRALIAN MARITIME LAW, 4th ed

Sarah Derrington and Michael White

This is a leading text for maritime law courses. Over 16 chapters, it covers Admiralty jurisdiction and the Australian constitutional background; the Admiralty Act 1988 (Cth); 'dry' shipping topics; and, 'wet' aspects of shipping concern. This edition also includes a new section addressing some of the competition law issues relevant to shipping in Australia.

December 2020
830pp
HB 9781760022501
eBook 9781760022921
Academic price $183.75
RRP $245

* Inspection copy not available

THE LAW OF POLITICS: Elections, Parties and Money in Australia, 2nd ed

Graeme Orr

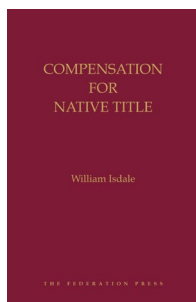

This book chronicles and critiques the rules, cases and institutions involved in politics in Australia. From voting rights to the framework for free and fair elections and referendums, and from political parties to restraints on money in politics.

January 2019
320pp
PB 9781760021917
eBook 9781760024048
RRP $89.95

THE HOLT PRIZE – BACK IN 2024

After a one-off hiatus, the Holt Prize is back!

Entries for the 2024 Holt Prize will open in March 2024 and we want academics to spread the word to their postgraduate students or apply themselves if they have not yet published a book. This biennial award, honouring Christopher Holt who co-founded The Federation Press, provides a $12,000 cash prize and a publishing contract for the best manuscript in an area of the law written by a first-time author.

HOLT PRIZE 2021 WINNER - COMPENSATION FOR NATIVE TITLE

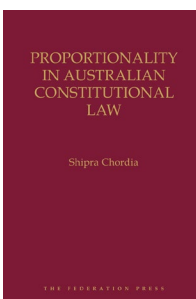

William Isdale

HB 9781760023645

272pp

RRP $125

Based on winner William Isdale's PhD, which was awarded by the University of Queensland, this book provides a significant contribution to our understanding of compensation for the extinguishment of native title rights.

HOLT PRIZE 2019 WINNER - PROPORTIONALITY IN AUSTRALIAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

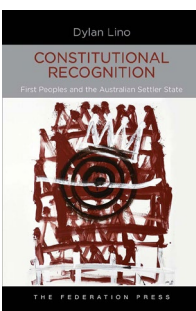

Shipra Chordia

HB 9781760022426

272pp

RRP $120

Full of insights, Shipra Chordia's illuminating book considers current debates about the appropriateness of proportionality in Australian constitutional law and how these might be addressed.

HOLT PRIZE 2017 WINNER - CONSTITUTIONAL RECOGNITION: First Peoples and the Australian Settler State

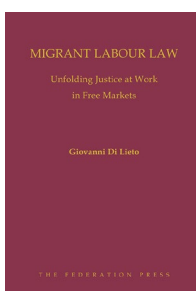

Dylan Lino

PB 9781760021818

336pp

RRP $49.95

An important book that addresses constitutional recognition in terms of Indigenous peoples' struggles to have their identities respected within the settler constitutional order.

HOLT PRIZE 2015 JOINT WINNER - MIGRANT LABOUR LAW: Unfolding Justice at Work in Free Markets

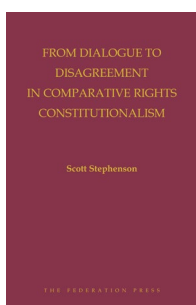

Giovanni Di Lieto

HB 9781760020644

240pp

RRP $99.00

The joint winner of the inaugural Holt Prize, explores how labour migration policies, institutions and safeguards can address the issues and needs of a mobilised global workforce.

HOLT PRIZE 2015 JOINT WINNER - FROM DIALOGUE TO DISAGREEMENT IN COMPARATIVE RIGHTS CONSTITUTIONALISM

Scott Stephenson

HB 9781760020675

272pp

RRP $99.00

This book sets out a new framework for comparison that focuses on the types of inter-institutional disagreement facilitated by and found in the different approaches to human rights protection.

PUBLISH WITH US

We'd love to hear from you if you have a manuscript for us to look at. Are you a PhD candidate, academic or lawyer working on your first law book? Do you have an idea for a book about an area of Australian law that you feel deserves more attention? Send your book proposal to:

Trisha Valliappan at t.valliappan@federationpress.com.au or Jason Monaghan j.monaghan@federationpress.com.au.

We publish

- student texts
- scholarly monographs
- edited collections
- practitioner titles

Why us?

- Australian owned and proudly independent
 - in-house editorial team
 - enthusiastic marketing and sales
 - print and eBook formats available
-

Academic enquiries:

Belinda Rimmer

academic@federationpress.com.au or 02 9552 2200

@TheFedPress

The Federation Press

THE FEDERATION PRESS

federationpress.com.au