THE HOLT PRIZE 2024

FOR A FIRST-TIME AUTHOR OF AN OUTSTANDING LEGAL WORK

This is Australia's richest legal publishing award. The winner will be awarded $12,000 in cash and a publishing contract with The Federation Press.

Now in its fifth year, this biennial prize continues to grow in importance generating entries from across Australia's many law schools.

This is a rare opportunity for postdoctoral students, researchers and early career academics to be published and read widely. The Federation Press is a respected independent publisher. Our books are available in both print and ebook formats to a local and global audience and are reviewed in key journals.

The judges for the 2024 prize are: The Hon James Allsop AC, Professor Barbara McDonald and Elizabeth Collins SC.

Submissions open on 1 December 2023 and entries must be lodged by 31 March 2024. See our website for the full terms and conditions.

Please contact our publishers, Trisha Valliappan or Jason Monaghan, if you require any further information.

This highly respected text analyses the complex and developing mixture of private and public law that informs government contracting. The mixture raises some difficult problems and is, at times, controversial. The book covers areas such as government privileges and immunities, the ability of governments to override contracts through legislation, government and competition and consumer legislation, and government tenders.

ADJUDICATION IN THE BUILDING INDUSTRY, 4th ed

Philip Davenport

September 2021
286pp
PB 9781760023218
eBook 9781760023300
RRP $99

A clearly written and succinct text for building and construction law students. It covers how to make a payment claim, how to make and withdraw an adjudication application and how to make an adjudication response. It considers the Building and Construction Industry (Security of Payment) Act 2021 (WA) with a focus on NSW, but with specific chapters covering the main differences in the legislation in each other State and the ACT.

CONSTRUCTION CLAIMS, 4th ed

Philip Davenport

November 2020
320pp
PB 9781760022525
eBook 9781760023294
RRP $99

This book considers current construction law issues and how to frame or defend claims arising from construction work. It considers variation claims, time-related claims, quantum meruit claims, claims after termination by frustration, defective work claims, licensing and building claims, and claims after termination. The inclusion of practical examples and case law make it a valuable resource given the common use of compulsory rapid adjudication to resolve construction claims.

CRIMINAL LAW & EVIDENCE

LAW OF CO-OFFENDING IN AUSTRALIA: Principles Applicable to Co-accused Trials

Peter Lowe

November 2022

288pp

HB 9781760024192

eBook 9781760024208

RRP $150

The focus of this book is how each of the Australian jurisdictions deal with issues affecting co-accused both under common law and under statute. It covers the practice, procedure and legal aspects of joint trials and how such trials differ in important respects from the trial of a sole accused.

COMMONWEALTH CRIMINAL LAW, 3rd ed

Troy Anderson

448pp

HB 9781760023966

eBook 9781760023973

RRP $150

Commonwealth criminal law represents an expanding area of practice and this text is a practical entry point for students wanting to practice criminal law. It provides an overview of how Commonwealth criminal law intersects with State and Territory criminal law and has undergone significant updating, including with respect to the Commonwealth's new money laundering and child exploitation offences.

THE TRIAL: Principles, Process and Evidence, 2nd ed

Jill Hunter, James Metzger, Terese Henning, Gary Edmond, Rebecca McMahon, Mehera San Roque and Helen Cockburn

May 2021

720pp

PB 9781760022938

eBook 9781760022983

RRP $135

Criminal jury trials occur in an increasingly complex justice environment. The Trial distils and explains the criminal trial's complexities in terms of the daily pre-trial and trial challenges facing courts and practitioners. It draws links to the potential impact of lawyers' advocacy on courts' decision-making and the important context of juries, and explicitly recognises that courts' processes and decisions require not only an appreciation of the uniform Evidence Acts, but also an understanding of human emotion and psychology.

UNIFORM EVIDENCE LAW: Text and Essential Cases, 4th ed

John Anderson

February 2021

890pp

PB 9781760022570

eBook 9781760022839

RRP $125

This book covers all the concepts and rules of evidence law. Carefully selected case extracts, judicial decisions and legislative amendments are accompanied by insightful commentary and analysis. This edition includes updates on the contentious area of tendency evidence, with principles in this area clarified significantly by several high-profile High Court decisions.

EQUITY & TRUSTS

COMMON LAW, EQUITY AND STATUTE: A Complex Entangled System

Mark Leeming

June 2023

352pp

HB 9781760024574

eBook 9781760024581

RRP $180

 Inspection copy not available*

This strikingly original book analyses what is meant by the 'common law of Australia', what is the relationship between judge-made law and statutes, and how courts resolve novel questions of law. It explains why some questions are best regarded as aspects of the common law, why others are best regarded as questions of statutory construction, why some are difficult to characterise, and why this matters. An invaluable resource for anyone seeking a sophisticated understanding of how the law is applied and developed by our courts.

PRINCIPLES OF EQUITY AND TRUSTS, 6th ed

Samantha Hepburn

October 2020

880pp

PB 9781760022495

LITIGATION

LEARNING TO LITIGATE: A Guide for Young Lawyers

Neil Williams SC and
Alison Hammond

October 2022
338pp
PB 9781760024079
eBook 9781760024086
RRP $89.95

The central tenet of this book is that great advocates are not born – they are made. Whether it be a plea of guilty before a magistrate or a multi-party commercial dispute involving billions of dollars and dozens of lawyers, each stage in the preparation and presentation of a case requires skills that must be learned, then honed. Combining the perspectives of an experienced silk and a relatively junior barrister, this is an essential book for young lawyers.

CASE MANAGEMENT AND COMPLEX CIVIL LITIGATION, 2nd ed

This highly practical text has been greatly expanded since its first edition. It provides detailed consideration of the history and rationale for case management principles and rules, and the most current and significant judicial pronouncements on them. It also examines the case management tools available to judges for dealing with crucial aspects of complex civil litigation, such as pleadings, discovery, expert evidence and alternative dispute resolution.

THE PLACE OF PRACTICE: Lawyering in Rural and Regional Australia

Trish Mundy,
Amanda Kennedy and
Jennifer Nielsen (eds)

October 2017
288pp
PB 9781760021573
eBook 9781760022181
RRP $89.95

This book looks at how legal practice differs in rural and regional areas, and the particular issues and barriers facing these communities and clients. Subjects covered include: the practical and ethical settings of rural and regional legal practice; access to justice; entrepreneurship and innovation; and distinct practitioner and client contexts (including working with Indigenous clients).

LOCATING CRIME IN CONTEXT AND PLACE: Perspectives on Regional, Rural and Remote Australia

Alistair Harkness,
Bridget Harris and
David Baker (eds)

December 2015
240pp
PB 9781760020477
eBook 9781760022914
RRP $69.99

The urban focus of crime has dominated the attention of criminologists. Although images of idyllic, crime-free areas beyond the cityscape persist, there is scant academic consideration of the realities and variances of crime across regional, rural and remote Australia. The broad theme of the book is centred on 'context, place and space'; however, contributors also assess contextualisations of rurality, notions of access to justice and the importance of building social capital.

SOCIAL WELFARE & HUMAN RIGHTS
